#168 islands #Refresh #Relax #Nature

A day on a tranquil island, a trip only for me to Incheon, a city where 168 beautiful islands twinkle like stars.. Go on a light trip to the islands off Incheon like Sindo Island, Sido Island, and Modo Island, where you can arrive within 10 minutes, or travel to Baengnyeongdo Island, which takes 4 hours to arrive by fast-sailing ship. Take a break from the hustle and bustle of city life.

Deokjeokdo Island

Deokjeokdo Island is a gem for its Ongjin Beach. Worthy of its reputation, it offers not only trekking, sea bathing, and sea fishing, but also c facilities like accommodations and rental car services. If you want to go to Mungapdo Island or Gureopdo Island, get on a cargo passenger ship at Deokjeokdo Island.

Seungbongdo Island

This island is said to resemble a flying phoenix. It has such fine rocks and sandy beaches. Many trekking tourists who travel around the islands visit Seungbongdo Island.

Baengnyeongdo Island

From this northernmost island in the west sea, you can see Jangsangot in North Korea on a clear day. It takes more than 4 hours to reach from the Incheon coastal Ferry Terminal, but it is an island you should visit at least once. Recognized as Baengnyeong famous for Baengnyeongdo-style cold noodles, fermented sand eel, and Baengyeongdo wormwood.

Sindo, Sido, and Modo Islands

It takes only 10 minutes from the Sammok Quay to reach Sindo, Sido, and Modo Islands. Many tourists ride bicycles here. While feeling the cool sea breeze on a bicycle, you can blow away any stress from your everyday lives.

Daecheongdo Island · Socheongdo Island

Geologic highlights of ancient mysteries spread throughout the island. The coastline is green and blue enough to fill your gaze. During your visit, stop and take a moment to find yourself immersed in the scenery.

Yeonpyeongdo Island

this place was the best spot for yellow corbinas in Korea. After the shelling from North Korea in 2010, it has now become a famous place for peace and security awareness tourism. The island is still the largest fishing port on the west coast, and you can feel the warm and generous lives of the people on the island.
